Three Judges sat in judgment and public sale at the Court House door, decided that Spalding was not entitled to his liberty. They said he must go back to the penitentiary and await the action of the Pardon or Parole Board. The faithful wife sat by his side, and when the cruel words came she wept. The prisoner arose, his face white and his voice scarcely audible, and asked his return to be deferred one day, that he might again say an affectionate farewell to the woman who had been so loyal.

The legal representative of the State of Illinoise raised an objection to any delay. Pleadings and tears could not move him, and the request of the condemned man was denied. It was then 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and before midnight Banker Spalding was on a train speeding away to prison. The faithful wife returned to her home, disconsolate and almost discouraged.

She sat at her desk and busied herself with figures. She found that the legal battles had sapped her little fund that was saved to her five years ago. Work must be her portion. She must again go forth, in the world to earn her daily bread? Her mind was soon made up and the next day she went into the city to seek employment. The song was written by Stephen Collins Foster, a resident of Pennsylvania, while he and his sister were on a visit to Judge John Rowan, a short distance east of Bardstown. One beautiful morning, while the darkies were at work in the cornfields and the sun was shining with a mighty splendor on the waving grass-first giving it a color of light red, then changing 6 65 it to a golden hue there was seated upon a bench in front of the Rowan homestead two young people-a brother and a sister. High up in the top 7 15 of a tree was a mocking bird warbling its sweet notes. Over in the hidden recesses of a small bush the thrush's mellow song could be heard. RINGO AND THE PRIMARY.

Mr. Ben D. Ringo is a member of Hines, Harvy. . . . . . . 42 the Democratic State Central Committee, and as such he voted against offices. Mr. Heber Matthews, editor or the Hartford Herald was sick, and Mr. Ringo wrote the editorials for "The people in the party who do the vot ing wanted and demanded a primary.' Is it not a little strange that Mr. Ringo did not know what his people wanted a week ago, when he, as a James, Mrs Dora (agent for member of the State Central Committee, voted against a State primary? Again Mr. Ringo says editorially in the Hartford Herald:

"On the contrary, a primary is demanded largely because many Democrats remember that the men who cried out the loudes against a State primary and yell 'stop thief, have more than once aided in so manipulat ing State conventions as to entirely overthrow the expressed will of the majority.

Does not Mr. Ringo here refer to participants in the Music Hall convention, and did he not, after that erous enough to the aspirants referred convention, go out in the country to, to name the official or officials in and swear by all the gods that that convention was the fairest ever held in Kentucky?

Again this same Mr. Ringo, who voted against the calling of a State primary, says editorially in the Her-ald a week later: "The Democrats in the country districts of the State, where they want an absolutely fair deal in selecting candidates and want to avoid the evils which are always attendant upon State conventions, are in favor of a State primary. The action of the State Central Committee in calling the primary has the hearty approval of the Democrats of Ohio

Almost Unnerved Me -Heart Pains. Short of Breath,

Faint and Languid. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

"It has been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nervine, and I am just as sound as a dollar in that organ today. For several years I had been suffering with my heart. Breathing had become short and difficult at times, short, sharp pains about the heart, sometimes accompanied with fluttering would make me feel faint and languid. The least excitement or mental worry would almost unnerveme. I felt that the trouble was growing worse all the time, and after trying many remedies prescribed by physicians without obtaining relief, I was induced to give your remedies a trial. I was relieved the second day, and after taking three or four bottles all symptoms were removed and have never showed signs of returning."—REV. GEO. W. KIRACOPE, Chincoteague, Va.

There are many symptoms of heart disease,

Kiracope, Chincoteague, Va.

There are many symptoms of heart disease, which so closely resemble those of more common nervous disorders as to frequently mislead the attending physician. Often in cases of heart trouble the stomach, kidneys, liver or lungs become affected. Again the symptoms may be those of weakened nerves, as tired feeling, sleeplessness, timidity, the patient is easily excitable and apt to worry without cause. If you have the least suspicion that your heart is weak study your symptoms and begin the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic, without a day's delay.
